Wine Enthusiast 88 POINTS BEST BUY ANNE KREBIEHL, AUGUST 2015

"Slightly fragrant, superfresh and pear-scented, this is a very simple but fun Grner made for sunny afternoons. Very easy, refreshing and fruity."

Wine Spectator DAILY WINE PICK KIM MARCUS, DECEMBER 2015

"Juicy, with green apple and citrus flavors that feature savory notes, followed by lemon curd accents on the finish. Drink now."

FineWineAndGoodSpirits.com CHAIRMAN'S SELECTION STEVE JULIANA, AUGUST 2015

Wine specialist Max Greenfield describes this collaboration by Meinhard Forstreiter and Monika Caha as an "easy drinking and refreshing Grüner Veltliner that appeals to wine lovers as well as new wine drinkers." Crisp dry and delicious!

Wall Street Journal What Goes Into Wine-Label Design? LETTIE TEAGUE, MAY 2015

"I found other labels that proved (veteran label designer Bob Johnson's) points and turned out to be good wines as well. The 2014 Grooner Grüner Veltliner from Austria features a cartoon of a woman holding a hand to her face and calling "Grooner," which happens to be—helpfully—the pronunciation of that grape. It's fun and educational."

MSNBC.com "GROONER" is a wine (and marketing) hit! EDWARD DEITCH, MARCH 2009

"Not only is Grooner one of the best attempts at wine branding I've seen, it's also a great wine value. It's instantly enjoyable and unmistakably gröner..."
